

Védique Horoscope :

Raj , Born on 25 February 2008 at Praha Tcheq .
Time 20h 43

Special features of the horoscope :

Yogas :

Raja yoga in 5th : means great ability for sadhana and deity worship , of course these special abilities and interest will manifest according to the spiritual atmosphere of the family and the training he receive from the parents . Otherwise good things will manifest for him according to this yoga but more on the material platform like sports , amusements and romantic life . This yoga of power gives good luck for him in the area of children , a very good student ability and teaching capacity .

Previous birth was already spiritual and meritorious , a very good inclination for prayers and mantras . Comfortable life and great influence on others , income without so much efforts many friends .

He may have some sisters , like pets and get good general karma for enjoyment .

He may not start good with sentimental business around 15 years old , otherwise this house (5th) of sentiments and romance will give good results .

This raja yoga brings good luck for the general destiny of the child .

Sharp intelligence and preeminence of passion in the character . May suffer some misfortunes in the area of children but still some protection is there and it maybe only deceptions and worry about kids !

Make good teacher or diplomat in the government service .

Hamsa yoga (yoga for great enjoyment or special destiny) .

Jupiter or Guru in his own sign and in powerful house :

Very benefic and good carachter . This yoga brings wealth and good education .

May certainly own property and have good fiends :

Parivarthana yoga between Sun and Saturn :

This yoga is not so benefic and will manifest later in life maybe when he will be parent himself : This is a yoga bringing the test of maya through material attachments and bad habits , bringing diseases . he may suffer litigation on the same period , travel or live to foreign country and suffer due to the questionable character of the wife !

If at that time, he his in Krishna consciousness , then the effect of this quite malefic yoga will manifest only in the mind and not in the acts or it maybe of minor importance !

That is why education and training is important for everyone cause you see rarely a horoscope with only perfect planets placements and benefic yogas , this is the nature of the material world .

Still Hamsa yoga which is related to the Guru will act as great protection provided by this time he is already twice born .

Lord of the 8th in 10th (Mars)

This yoga may bring some difficulties in the career and some blemish on the reputation . Will enable the person to accomplish severe and difficult things .

Back complain will manifest .

This is a yoga who will manifest later in adult life .

Lord of the 5th in a 12th

IS also a special difficult feature concerning separation or loss of one of his child .

This yoga gives him great interest in self realization , detachment from the world and liking for traveling !

Moon being aspected by rahu and saturn and moon in kemadruma yoga

- This yoga can bring intoxicative tendency , loneliness and depression . Sickness during childhood is possible although he has quite strong general health and disposition according to the position of lagna and Sun . Be careful by protecting Raman from spirit and other entities , usually babies are more perceptive than others with this and himself has this type of configuration in the horoscope . He should not sleep alone or should have soft bhajans, bhagavatam book open near his bed and lights going on during his sleep .

The general horoscope is bless by good yogas (auspicious combinations of planets) , which brings overall protection in the whole life . The malefic yogas are not so strong , still already seeing his moon position which gives indications of his childhood and his mind frame through his life I will recommend for him for the beginning of his life an astral lunar talisman . (see with me later for the details if you are interested)

Star of birth :

Swati is a deva or godly star , good start for Raman , the star is translate as the sword or the priest . It suggest persons who travels ,an cut off material attachments and learn in theology . Swati is also know as « the self going » which means that he will be independent in deeds and thoughts . We will see how all this is developing in the horoscope through his life .

The predominating deity is vayu .

Following are some qualities from a person born under this star : righteous , clever in trade , sweet speech , modest and compassionate . Courageous , eloquent , with scientific knowledge and some servants .

Ok so Raman is born under rahu period which can mean several things : he needs for sure a stable environment . This period will be good for him emotionally (I guess the parents are mad of him) , but will be also delicate for contracting various deceases . It should not be too strong cause he has astrologically some good protection as the placement of the Moon or Jupiter , but still the parents have to be attentive .

General health is good , eyes may have some light troubles also .

Love travel , variable health specially in childhood.

Partnership can prove profitable for him but must be cautious not to rely easily to others . Happy go-lucky streak , with a tendency to put things for another day . Good power of observation but will need to develop the ability to use reason and logic . Will waste time socializing and by relying too much on his own thinking . Charming , can be also fickle or shifty by nature . Will not have mean thoughts about others but dislike to be criticized . Although Moon here in Libra is not in the best place in the horoscope , still many good qualities are given to Raj . (just a name to go on) .

He could be easily be given deities to play with like Prabhupada is telling from fortunate child . He should be also kept carefully in his youth from bad company and low born people who may Influence badly on the mind . In other words he may not be able to resist to intoxication or other things like if he is in this environment !!
